Sexton named WMUR political director

MANCHESTER — WMUR anchor and reporter Adam Sexton was named the station's political director. He will continue to work with political reporter John DiStaso to serve as the station's core political coverage team. He will no longer anchor weekend evening newscasts so he can focus on his new responsibilities. Reporter Mike Cronin will replace him and join the weekend anchor team Jan. 13.

ADAM SEXTON

MIKE CRONIN

Pulaski in Manchester

celebrate the 85th anniversary of Manchester's Pulaski Park and the 80th anniversary of the Brigadier General Casimir Pulaski Monument.

Saturday, March 17, 2018

10:00 am - Noon

Holy Trinity Cathedral Hall

166 Pearl Street, Manchester, NH

open to the public

A Special Event sponsored by Manchester's Pulaski Day Celebration Committee. Holy Trinity PNCC and St. Hedwig Parish

Featuring:

A presentation about the history of Pulaski Park (1933) and the monument (1938).

A presentation about the Brigadier General Casimir Pulaski Monument Restoration Project.

Birthday toast to Gen. Pulaski, born in Warsaw, Poland 1745.

An opportunity to share memories of Polish-American history in Manchester

Light refreshments.

For more information, follow on Facebook: www.facebook.com/RestorePulaskiMonument/ or call (603) 668-5087